

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

ordinance which may be repealed by this ordinance, and shall not affect any prosecution or action which may be pending in any court for the violation of any ordinance repealed by this ordinance.

[Ordinance No. 25037 adopted May 7, 1912.]

LYNN, MASS.

PRIVIES AND CLOSETS—TO BE SUPPLIED FOR WORKMEN DURING CONSTRUCTION OF BUILDINGS.

All persons or corporations engaged in the erection, construction, or repair of buildings in the city of Lynn shall, during the progress of the work, furnish adequate sanitary conveniences for the use of the workmen employed on said work, and said conveniences shall be a closet connected with the sewer or a cesspool, or a dry earth closet that shall be kept and maintained in a sanitary condition.

[Regulation, Board of Health, Aug. 28, 1912.]

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

MILK—USE OF PATENT MILK CANS FOR PURPOSES OF FRAUD PROHIBITED.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the council of the city of New Orleans, That from and after the passage of this ordinance it shall be unlawful for any corporation, firm, or person, himself or by his servant, agent, or employee, or as the servant, agent, or employee of another, to make or have in its, their, or his possession, or to sell, offer, or expose for sale, or have in its, their, or his possession for sale any so-called "patent milk can."

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, etc., That a "patent milk can" is hereby defined to be any milk can so constructed that more than one liquid substance may be contained separately therein, or any milk can that by turning the faucet the full arc of its movement shall not at some point in its transit create an opening whereby the contents of said can may be discharged, or which by any manipulation will permit more than one liquid to flow through or from it, or any milk can so constructed as to be intended or which might be used to deceive the public as to its contents or use.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, etc., That the existence of any such can is hereby declared to be a public nuisance and a menace to public health, and the board of health of the city of New Orleans and its officers, inspectors, agents, and employees are hereby authorized and directed to and shall destroy any such can wherever found, without compensation to the owner, and for that purpose and to that end the said board of health of the city of New Orleans, its officers, inspectors, agents, and employees are hereby authorized and shall have the authority to enter any place or premises where milk cans are made, stored, kept, sold, or exposed or offered for sale, or any dairy or other premises where milk is stored, kept, sold, or offered or exposed for sale, and are also granted authority and are hereby directed to inspect the milk cans and milk receptacles on any wagon or other vehicle used for the purpose of delivering or carrying milk, or wherever the same may be found.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained, etc., That whoever shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars, or in default of payment of such fine, by imprisonment in the parish prison for not more than thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court having jurisdiction.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained, etc., That all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

[Ordinance No. 8618, adopted May 7, 1912.]